THE PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Out with the Old, In with the New...

Gabe Goldstein
2005 WCRC President

My prayers were answered and Gabe Goldstein stepped up to take on the role of WCRC President. If you don't know Gabe, then you don't know how lucky the Club is to have him in this role.

Again, if you don't know him, Gabe originally hails from South Africa and therefore has what some would call a funny accent. To others its sophisticated and charming. Gabe began playing before coming to the U.S. but says his game has done nothing but improve since landing in California! He says that he's been playing for lots of years (okay he's not a spring chicken) but loves the game as much today as the first day he played.

Gabe joined our Club about six years ago when he heard about the Calcutta tournament. Since then, he has been an active member and on our Board for the last 3 1/2 years. In 2004 he was our Treasurer and will continue in that role in addition to being President. Some may think he's a bit bonkers but let's just say he's a good multi-tasker!

You can see Gabe on the Heather courts playing men's singles, doubles and mixed doubles. He's definitely hooked on the game we all love. Please join me in thanking Gabe for taking on the President's job and wishing him well for the 2005 year! Pam

Casino Night - A Winning Bet...

Tables of Twenty One and Roulette drew lots of attention at the WCRC annual party on Friday, January 14th at the Walnut Creek Civic Arts Center.

Over 100 members and guests also enjoyed dancing and table mounded with hearty hors d'ouerves, sandwiches and desserts.

Club Championship winners in singles and doubles were awarded mugs and donated gifts were given as door prizes throughout the evening. Those winning 'big' at the tables traded in their chips for extra raffle tickets and more prizes were handed out at the end of the evening.

Members of the Walnut Creek Racquet Club Board organized the party, obtained sponsors for the tables and door prizes, manned the bar, and helped with set up and take down of the room and decorations.

A special thanks to Tammy Chan, Susie Dunlop and Jennifer Scriabine who headed up the organizing and put in hours to make the party such a success.
