THE PRESIDENT'S REPORT

September 2019

Glenn McBee
2019 WCRC President

The heat is ON! Just a normal summer in Walnut Creek. We will miss the warmth in about 60-90 days, so enjoy it, while we have it. Have you been playing in the summer singles league? Still time to participate, runs until 9/15. And Mixed Doubles is upon us. Find a partner and enjoy the best season, well most funestest... I think it is.

Mixed seems to make most of us enjoy to competition and remain civil. Sign up at <http://www.wcrc.net/Leagues/Login.aspx>

Northgate courts will be open from 4pm –sunset on weekdays and 8am – sunset on weekends. No reserving the courts, only the bottom 4. Access from Hutchinson Road side only. First come, first serve. Good luck to those teams continuing on in playoffs. GO CREEK!!!!

I would love to hear about those moments when players exhibit exceptional sportsmanship and/or kindness. Send to me at glennmcbee@gmail.com. I want to start to highlight many of the best times on the courts.

NEW YORK, NY, USA - US Open doubles semifinalist Ashleigh Barty was awarded the women's 2018 US Open Sportsmanship Award on Wednesday.

The award is presented to the professional tennis players who best demonstrate excellence in sportsmanship throughout the US Open Series and the US Open. John Isner won the men's award.

"Very surprised, very humbling, I think," Barty said. "I always try to do my best on the court to compete and try the best that I can, but in the same breath also have good sportsmanship and respect my opponent, respect the tournament and respect everything that goes on behind the scenes to make it a possibility."

We are starting a new column – Member Spotlight. Just an opportunity to showcase those members who do so much for tennis and are wonderful leaders at the WCRC.

Be kind, have fun and we will see you on the courts!

Glenn

NorCal Celebrates High School Day

by David Pintado

On August 1st, NorCal USTA celebrated their High School Day at the 2019 WTA Premier Silicon Valley Classic Mubadala and the girls from Mt Diablo HS attended and had lots of fun!

They also had hitting sessions and chatted with the ATP Pro Christie Ahn.

It also was a motive to sheer at the recent receipient Award USTA Pancho Gonzalez College Scholarship to senior Eimy Gonzalez from Bay Point (Venezuela).

Eimy just became fulltime student at Diablo Valley College and new USTA Junior player. All these great news are possible due to the constant support of WCRC , Lifetime Tennis and NorCal USTA.

Myrl Kan's 4.0 Women's Daytime Team Advance to Championships

It's such a challenge to play against the top contenders in the league, even more so to play against a team's own club. A very tight season running neck and neck with the Walnut Creek B team with only a three point difference at the end. But this is what motivates us - good tennis!

We advanced to the Championship round at Blackhawk. Sadly, USTA day league only has one post season match - no districts, no sectionals, no Nationals. Hopefully in the future there'll be enough teams to participate in all post season matches up to the Nationals level.

Our team had a good run at Blackhawk. We fought hard, but lost the deciding line in the last 2 matches - Super Tie 8-10. We came in third, but we tied the top two teams in the same number of individual match wins/losses - 5-4; and fewer sets lost. So close!

This team worked hard and was so dedicated throughout the season, especially the week and a half leading up to Blackhawk. Not only did they practiced almost every day (in 90+ degrees), but also took the initiative to organize team practices themselves.

Congratulations for your endeavors! Be proud to make it to the end!

Congratulations to the other teams that made it to Districts and those advancing to Sectionals. Take it all the way! WCRC was well represented.

Thank you Team!

4.0 Men's Team Battle Through Districts

Some seasons are so fun that you simply don't want them to end. That was certainly the case this 18+ season for the Spartan team that advanced all the way to Districts. This team once again had a family feel to it, and there's no doubt that it's an important aspect that contributed to the team success. The physical manifestation of that family feel was represented in a pair of shoes the team bought for it's youngest player, and it's just one more gesture by a team that showed it cared about more than just wins & losses. This brotherhood fell just short of making it to Sectionals, but no team had more fun or integrity, and Scott Judy & I were honored to captain such a great group of men. Thank you, Spartans, for being such a dream team to captain, and thanks for making this yet another season to remember! AH-UUHHH! AH-UUHHH!! AH-UUHHH!!!

Walnut Creek Daytime 3.5 Ladies Win Sectionals!

by Krisztina Kohlhaas

The Walnut Creek Daytime 3.5 team, AKA Team “Good Times,” won the Adult 18+ Sectional!

Many, many thanks to all our friends and family who came out to support the team: Rich Golinski, Betsy Gwynn, Pru, Justin Snyder, Susan Sovik, and John, Nathaniel and Penelope Welch.

And huge gratitude to our team members who also came out to cheer even though they didn’t play: Betsy Kemp, Julie Golinski, Kim Phillips, Terri Coleman. It’s wonderful to see that camaraderie and love for the sport and team.

We won all our matches at Sectionals, some by only a slim margin. Alissa was a true rockstar, and pulled out two deciding team wins in superties to keep us advancing. Tammie played in all four matches and won them all, including the final! Ali and Soyoung bucked up two days in a row against super challenging opponents, and won one and barely lost one in a supertie. Lena faced a 4.5-level singles player on Friday, but wasn’t deterred and came out guns blazing for the final to help the team win it all. And, finally, our dynamic duo, Shawnley and Regina, just in from Texas and Singapore, helped us sweep the deciding match to advance the team to the finals.

It has been an incredible run and I want to express my gratitude to every one of our players for a super fun season. I especially want to acknowledge our co-captain Shawnley, without whom none of this would have been possible. She was the de facto captain and did all the heavy lifting getting us organized, handling logistics, and going to matches the past two seasons. And she even flew back from Texas just for Sectionals! Now that’s commitment!

Personally, I will be retiring from captaining ladies Daytime tennis, and it was such an honor to lead you all and go out with a bang. Thank you for believing in me and helping make team Good Times greater than the sum of its parts. Love you guys!

Congratulations to the entire team: Debbie Alster, Shirley Coke, Terri Coleman, Julie Golinski, Regina Hughes, Betsy Kemp, Soyoung Kim, Krisztina Kohlhaas (captain), Judith Kraus, Lena Larionova, Barbara Leivent, Thuy Nguyen, Kimberly Phillips, Ali Rago, Tammie Snyder, Tiffany Tran-Carper, Shawnley Walton (co-captain), Alissa Welch.

Walt Thomas Forever Young

by Pam Maloney

As an effort to get to know our membership the Board has decided to start a new monthly column "Member Spotlight". We will be interviewing WCRC members and getting to know them. This article will help us find out how they got introduced to tennis, their background, any favorite memories, etc. We hope you enjoy this new commentary.

The old cliché "age is just a number" certainly applies to long-time WCRC member, Walt Thomas. Walt played table tennis tournaments before he started thinking about picking up a tennis racquet, but let's back up a bit and start at the beginning of this incredible man's story.

Born in Berkeley, Walt has lived within a 20 mile radius of the Bay Area for all of his life. He's a proud Berkeley High graduate and just a few months ago went to his 70th high school reunion. With just 35-40 people attending from two different graduating classes, Walt reunited with three friends from kindergarten and one friend from earlier days than that. During high school Walt was a bit of rebel, hanging out with the guys, hot-rodding around, using the gas they would siphon out of other cars. Just a typical teenage boy at the time.

The Korean War started and you can probably guess that Uncle Sam decided Walt needed to serve his country. So in 1952, Walt became a Marine. He spent two years as a Marine and while it wasn't his favorite time of life, he credits the Marines with two things: (1) he got his one and only tattoo while in Oceanside at Camp Pendleton, and (2) he says the Marines saved his life by taking him away from his Berkeley group of friends.

Out of the Marines, Walt came back to the Bay Area, went back to college and became an electronic tech. Ultimately, he landed a job at the Alameda Naval Air Station where he stayed for 36 years. Yes, one job for his entire career! He loved his job, his co-workers and being a civil servant. Walt admits his job wasn't overly demanding and during lunch hour he first began playing table tennis. After beating up on his co-workers, playing table tennis, he decided to branch out and joined a table tennis club in Berkeley where he was no longer top dog. It took him a while but a few members took him "under their wing" and eventually he began entering and winning tournaments.

Not satisfied with just one sport, a co-worker gave Walt tennis lessons because there were six courts on the Base where they worked. The friend gave him a metal racquet and he found the transition smooth and easy. Within just a few months he was playing "D" level tournaments and loving his new sport. While on a family vacation in Santa Barbara he met a tennis player from Orinda who suggested he join the Orinda Tennis Club.

What's interesting is that Walt's Father was a tennis player who always wanted his son to play and they lived across the street from San Pablo Tennis Courts in Berkeley. During that time, though, Walt's high school friends convinced him not to play. Now all these years later, he found himself looking for a tennis club in Orinda. These were booming years for tennis and there was a five year waiting list in the Orinda Tennis Club and in Walnut Creek there was a three year waiting list for non-Walnut Creek residents! Because of the scarcity of courts, Walt joined the Concord Tennis Club because there wasn't a wait. After three years, he made it into Walnut Creek tennis and never looked back.

One of Walt's favorite memories is of a 7.0 mixed team he was on with Terri Hernandez as Captain. They made it to playoffs and had a ball. Walt retired his tennis racquet just a year ago but he's still a man on the move, riding his bike 3 to 5 times a week.

To ensure he has lots of riding options, Walt belongs to five different bicycle clubs. That way he gets to cherry pick the rides he wants. Walt was bemoaning the fact that he's only ridden about 1600 miles this year due to last winter's weather. Usually he rides 3 to 4,000 miles. His preferred bike club is in Fremont where he rides every Thursday with 10 to 15 others. Every year on Walt's birthday, the Fremont club hosts his birthday ride and upwards of 50 people join. If you know Walt, you'd understand why people do whatever they can to be a part of the celebration.

Just so you don't think this is a sports-only man, Walt's a big music fan and still enjoys going to concerts. A local and nationally known musician, Carlos Reyes, is not only his favorite but something of a friend.

So, that's a glimpse of our friend Walt Thomas' life. If you think of it, send him happy birthday wishes as he celebrates at his favorite restaurant, Texas Roadhouse, on September 13. And one other thing. As we parted ways, Walt was getting ready for Steve Buchholz's Table Tennis Tournament. Of course, age has no boundaries for a man like Walt.
