THE PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Happy New Year!

Garvin Tom
2024 WCRC President

I hope everyone had a wonderful holiday and had a chance to spend some time with family and friends and those who are important in your life. I also hope a lot of you got in some tennis as well over the holidays. Speaking of which, the start of the new year also brings a start to a lot of tennis leagues coming up, so let's get to it.

On the WCRC side, we have three leagues going on starting with the Fall Mixed league. The tournament is about a month away, so get your matches in to get qualified or to move up in the standings. Our Winter Doubles league has just started, so please sign up if you're interested. And if doubles isn't your thing, we also have our WING singles league going on as well.

On the USTA side, first I would like to congratulate Tammie Snyder's 55+ 8.0 Mixed team on winning Sectionals. They pretty much rolled through their competition while only losing one line that weekend. Tammie is starting to make Nationals an annual trip. LOL! I also would like to congratulate all our Combo teams who are going to Sectionals. I see a total of six teams if I counted correctly, so we will be well represented that weekend.

Continuing with USTA, the start of the new year also marks the start of a few USTA leagues, including 18+ Mixed, 40+ Adult, and 65+ Adult leagues. There is plenty of tennis in the next few months, so let's just hope the weather cooperates for the most part this year.

See you on the courts!

Garvin Tom

Giving Back While Cracking Jokes: Doug Fish

Interview and article by Ian McLaughlin

As an effort to get to know our membership the Board has decided to have a monthly column "Member Spotlight". We will be interviewing WCRC members and getting to know them. This article will help us find out how they got introduced to tennis, their background, any favorite memories, etc. We hope you enjoy this commentary.

If you're in the mood for a quick laugh and enjoy dad jokes, you should catch up with WCRC member Doug Fish because he's got an endless supply of them. But Doug's frequent wisecracks hardly mask his earnest desire to support the people and causes that are close to his heart.

Doug proudly proclaims that he's the only civilian in his family, as his father served in the Navy, his wife Fanny in the Air Force, and his daughters Lenore and Opal, both born in Israel, each performed their mandatory military service with the Israeli Defense Forces in Artillery and the Navy Seals. Although a lifelong civilian, Doug was living in Israel during the Gulf War in the "A zone", so he's familiar with living in an active war zone himself. Not surprisingly, supporting military veterans and their families is a very personal cause for Doug. In 2015, he completed a charity ride to support the Friends of the Israeli Defense Force (FIDF), cycling across Israel for six days to raise funds for adaptive cycling equipment and prosthetic sports devices for wounded veterans. Over the course of six days they rode over 450 miles across Israel from the Lebanese border up to the Syrian border down the Egyptian border to the Red Sea for a total elevation gain of over 30,000 feet, higher than Mt. Everest. You'll often see Doug with his bike at Heather Farm as he trains. In his typically self-deprecating humor, Doug calls cycling his "excuse to wear Spandex in public."

Doug hails from Kansas City, which many people know for its famous BBQ but to Doug it's the city of four seasons and lightning bugs, which most of us have never seen other than the animation in the classic ride "Pirates of the Caribbean" at Disneyland. Doug studied chemical engineering and received his MBA at Washington University in St. Louis before forgoing a stint in the Peace Corps to volunteer in Israel. He met his future wife Fanny, an Israeli native while playing frisbee on the beaches of Tel Aviv. After their courtship and eventual marriage, they settled in Tel Aviv and both of their daughters, Lenore and Opal, were born there. Doug refers to them as the “Irish twins” because they were born exactly one year “and twenty minutes” apart both on St. Patrick’s Day. The family eventually migrated back to the United States and settled briefly in Boston before moving west to our beautiful NorCal weather and to fund another start-up. Doug has a sister in Lafayette so he was familiar with the Bay Area and felt a special attraction to Mt. Diablo because only the devil’s weather could thaw them out from that last Boston Nor’easter!

Doug has far less tennis experience than most club members, in fact he’s only started playing tennis at WCRC about fifteen years ago when Lenore was coaching kids with our former pro Coach Mac. Doug took readily to tennis but admits that his level of satisfaction in tennis greatly outpaces his skill level. Like most WCRC members Doug appreciates that we enjoy a special community of people at Heather Farm, not only competitive players but great individuals who support one another and our community through events like “The Longest Rally” organized by Euna, Glenn & Kevin to fund Alzheimer’s research. Come out during the Summer Solstice this June to participate in the experience.

Doug plays a lot of USTA league tennis with WCRC, both 3.5 league and mixed doubles. He initially learned mixed doubles strategies from the ubiquitous Tammie Snyder, who gave him pro tips like “if your penis can touch the net, you’re standing too close.”

Doug worked in venture capital in Israel and has many a scar from his few start-up experience. Currently he is founder of a financial advisory team at Merrill Lynch, where he says his job is to “help emotional people make rational decisions.”

Besides tennis and cycling, Doug gardens as his personal therapy. His father was a master gardener back in Kansas City. He and Fanny live near Arbolado Park, and Fanny runs her own jewelry design business in Walnut Creek, “Fanny Fish Designs.” His oldest daughter, Lenore has settled nearby in Vacaville and works as a veterinary technician.

You frequently hear him called “fish fish”, which a play on words since the Hebrew word for “fish” sounds very similar to “Doug.”

Although always a jokester, Doug is quite serious about finding ways to help others, and based on his father’s experience with Parkinson’s Disease, Doug co-founded MyPersonal, Inc in the early days of the internet to create affinity groups to connect people who are experiencing similar kinds of trauma in their lives. Quite the clever idea since we were dialing up to the Internet on 56k baud modems and Myspace was the only fledging social media company at that time.

Doug’s youngest daughter Opal lives in Tel

Aviv and is currently spending far too much time hunkered down in a bomb shelter during the current Israeli-Hamas war. Between that conflict and the fighting between Russia and Ukraine and elsewhere around the globe, Doug foresees a rising need for veterans’ support in the coming years.

To quote lyricist Elvis Costello, what’s so funny ‘bout peace, love, and understanding? Just ask WCRC member Doug Fish. You’ll get an answer and probably a dad joke as well.

Happy New Year! May Shalom/Peace prevail in 2024 and beyond. ❖

Deuces Wild at it again...

Cara Mia Barnacascel knows how to put together winning teams. Both her 5.5 and 6.5 Combo Women's team made it deep in playoffs. The 6.5's fell just short in the 3rd round of playoffs falling to Orinda Country Club. The 5.5 team cleared playoffs and are now heading to sectionals! Good luck team!!

In the final round of playoffs both Walnut Creek teams matched up together. Unfortunately Kelly Sanchez team had to default one line due to illness. Tammie Snyder and Pru Pruden's team prevailed. But we are all one family at Heather Farm so we took a group photo.

8.5 Combo Women Finish the Season 10-0

When Jessica Kim put together this all-star cast of players she had no idea how dominate they would be. The team didn't lose a line until their 7th match! They finished the season only dropping 2 lines and only 10 sets which is remarkable. They played numerous different partnerships and still prevailed. They met up against Orindawoods who was a strong contender and edged them out in the second round of playoffs. Since there was a wild card in Diablo North both teams are heading to Sectionals January 19-21. Go Creek!!!

COURT BENCH UPDATE

We are currently going over Court Bench options with the City of Walnut Creek and hope to make a decision in early January. Once the benches arrive and are assembled, we will be able to immediately move them onto the courts.

Our goal is to have new benches on the courts within the month of January. We thank you for your continued patience. In the meantime, we have seats available for use on court. Please come by the main office to inquire with one of our office staff.

COURT LIGHT UPDATE

Lifetime Activities is currently in talks with our lighting repair company to come out and repair the dead court bulbs. This process has taken longer than we anticipated due to our court resurfacing. Because the courts are still in the process of curing, there are additional precautions that we need to take to ensure that the courts are not damaged during the lighting repair.

Our goal is to have the company come out in early January to replace the broken bulbs. If you have any questions/concerns about how this may affect your USTA match(es), please have your Team Captain contact the general manager at davidr@lifetimeactivities.com.

GRAND REOPENING EVENT RECAP

Thank you to everyone who attended our Grand Reopening event on Saturday, January 16th! A special thanks to Tammie Snyder who helped organize and run the tennis Round Robin portion! The occasion, by all counts, was a great success and we hope to run similar community events in 2024. (see photos on page 15).
