THE PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Happy February!

Garvin Tom
2024 WCRC President

Hi folks! We're only a month into 2024, and it's already been a crazy year. I hope you are all staying dry and got a chance to play between storms. We have a lot to talk about, so let's get to it.

Our WCRC Fall Mixed Tournament is coming up February 2-4, and it should be a lot of fun. Good luck to all the teams playing that weekend. If you're not playing the tournament, please come out and watch and cheer. We also just started our Winter Doubles season, and there's plenty of time to get your matches in, so please sign up if you're interested. And don't forget we have our WING Singles league going on as well if singles is your game.

On the USTA side we have both 40+ Adult and 18+ Mixed leagues going on right now, and before you know it the 18+ Adult, the 55+ Adult, and 65+ Adult leagues will begin. A lot of teams are already registered for those leagues, in fact. Can you believe it already?

Once again, I would like to thank our USTA captains, who really have been working hard this past month or so during this current USTA season. This is perhaps one of the most challenging times of the year for a captain. First, you have both 40+ Adult and 18+ Mixed leagues going on simultaneously, so you have captains juggling multiple teams throughout the season. Then you have all the rainouts and rescheduling that need to be dealt with.

As a former captain, I know that it's a tough job, and the struggle is real, and that's why I don't captain anymore. Haha! However, we can all do our part to make our captains' lives easier. First, fill out your availability and update it as much as possible. That helps your captain a great deal. It's annoying to try and contact players who don't fill out their availability to see if they can play an upcoming match. Don't forget that when there's a reschedule you need to also put in your availability for the new date. Second, when the lineup comes out and you're in it, take the time to respond and confirm. Actually, that doesn't take a lot of time at all, so there's no excuse not to. Third, show up early to your match and don't be late if you're playing. If you're running late, let your captain know. They're already busy preparing for the match. The last thing they need is added stress wondering where their players are.

And last but not least, don't forget to thank your captain. It really is a thankless job at times, and they really do deserve and appreciate our thanks. Maybe except Kyono, though. That guy's just nuts! Just kidding, Kev. You know we all appreciate you, man. LOL!

See you on the courts!

Garvin Tom

Member Spotlight

Grateful For Our Tennis Community: Kayla & Alex Baier

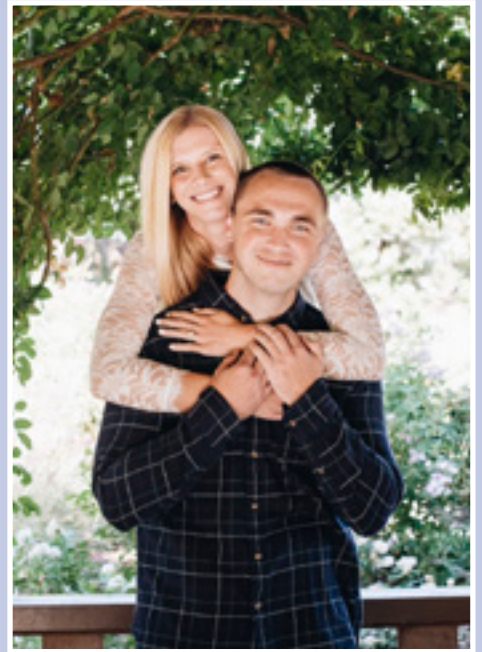

Interview and article by Ian McLaughlin

As an effort to get to know our membership the Board has decided to have a monthly column "Member Spotlight". We will be interviewing WCRC members and getting to know them. This article will help us find out how they got introduced to tennis, their background, any favorite memories, etc. We hope you enjoy this commentary.

For WCRC members/spouses Kayla and Alex Baier, the community of players we have at Heather Farm is a truly special group, which has led to relationships that transcend the sport itself. In fact, Kayla's experience at WCRC bears direct testament to the inclusionary and collegial atmosphere we all enjoy. She only picked up the game of tennis in 2018 after Alex had already been playing at Heather Farm for a few years. The Heather Farm family welcomed them both with typically open arms, prompting Kayla to start playing herself. She joined Cara Mia Barnacascel's well-known "Deuces Wild" team while Alex had already been playing USTA league on Cara Mia's husband's Sean's teams. With those close connections Alex and Kayla developed a close friendship with the Barnacascels, which led to Sean officiating the wedding ceremony when Kayla and Alex were married in 2022.

Kayla and Alex both grew up in Vacaville, famously also home of The Nut Tree. They attended Will C. Wood High School together, but they didn't start dating until they each returned to Vacaville after going away for college. In the decade they've been together they migrated closer to the East Bay primarily due to Alex's work in financial planning. Kayla continued her education at UC Davis, earning a masters degree in education, and she still teaches in the Vacaville school district and commutes from the couple's home in Pleasant Hill.

An active couple, Kayla and Alex enjoy hitting the gym together in addition to playing tennis (they recently began playing mixed doubles together) and visiting family back in Vacaville, but they note that most of their family members have taken up pickleball now. Alex is also a gamer, and uses that activity to remain connected with his old friends.

Throughout the interview for this spotlight article, both Alex and Kayla repeatedly returned to the importance of the tennis community in their lives, from the events hosted by WCRC to just hanging out at the courts between matches and mingling with friends while cheering on the other players on the courts and just soaking in the refreshing atmosphere.

Their nicknames at the club, courtesy of prolific nickname generator Sean Barnacascel, is "Bear", (AB or KB) based on their surname and Alex's German heritage. So don't be alarmed if you see a bear or two roaming the grounds of Heather Farm, if it's not Yogi looking for a stranded picnic basket might just be WCRC members Kayla and Alex Baier, from Vacaville in the 707. ❖

Deuces Wild at it again...

Deuces Wild 5.5 faced a tough flight at Sectionals. Three of the 4 teams we faced were mostly self rated players who were playing well above their level, players with drop shots and slices that were rated as 2.5. But the ladies battled their hearts out and lifted each other up with great attitudes during a tough match. So proud of their perseverance!

Dark Side 8.5 Combo Men Come Oh So Close

The Dark Side Tennis crew started to put things together late in the season. With a large team and several new partnerships, the early part of the season was about finding some stable pairings, and keeping the team in the Diablo North playoff mix.

A late push got the team into the playoffs. From there, the team was able to knock out the top seed, Willow Pass, in a tight 2-1 match in the semis. In the finals, another tight 2-1 victory over Lafayette meant the top seed into sectionals (Lafayette also went as a wild card).

The group went 3-0 in pool play at sectionals, getting 12 different players into the action. The sectional semi was another close one, highlighted by Alex Baier / Chris Lau coming back from a set down to pull out the 2nd set and the supertie to push the team into the finals.

The finals was a 2-1 loss, with both losses at 8-10 in superties. Oh, so close to the title. But the good news...we don't have to break up! And we'll be making another run at it in 2024!
