THE PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Happy September!

Hi folks,

Let me discuss a topic that's been an issue for USTA teams not just this past summer but every summer: availability. Especially for WCRC teams, players don't just take a week to head off for a little vacay; a lot of us are gone for multiple weeks at a time. Add to that all the other things such as graduations, injuries (and there have been a lot of them), family stuff, etc., and fielding lineups can be a weekly challenge. Several times this past season I had teams that had matches that were postponed, or a line gets rescheduled, or even a line is defaulted because of availability.

Garvin Tom
2025 WCRC President

One thing I noticed over the summer was a significant number of players who were only available for two or three matches for the entire season. If you were one of them, you might think, "Hey, I'm available for three matches, so I should get my two in, right?" Well, it doesn't exactly work that way. A few factors come into play that captains need to think about. Are any of your partners available? Are there other players who need to play and get qualified? How strong is the opponent (if you're on a competitive team), and how competitive will you be against them? Also, if you're not available for much of the season, there's a good chance that you haven't had much practice time either, so that's a factor as well. If you want your captain to be flexible with you, then you should be flexible with them as well.

So please check in with your captain before signing up if your availability is limited, even if you've been invited since your captain may not know your plans. As a former captain I would like my players to be available for at least half of the matches when they sign up. Also, fill out your availability and keep it updated whenever you can, and when your captain asks if you're available for a match, try to respond ASAP. Captains do a lot of work, and doing these things will help them out. Just like they say on ESPN: the best ability is availability.

See you on the courts!

Garvin Tom

Love Found On the Court: Darcy & Pat Beauchemin

Interview and article by Glenn McBee

These two aren't your usual story, and it doesn't get any sweeter than this...

We often start where our members' journeys began, and we always finish on the courts at Heather Farm. No different here... This one starts across the Pacific Ocean, where Darcy was born in Lihue, Kaua'i, delivered by the same doctor who delivered her mother 20 years earlier (it's a small island, what can you say?). She and her family lived on a couple of other islands for a short time (Moloka'i and Mau'i), but mainly settled on O'ahu. Moloka'i is known as the "The Friendly Isle," and if you've met Darcy, you know she lives that motto. From 7th grade until high school graduation she boarded at the Kamehameha Schools, a private school for children of Hawai'ian descent, a rival school of Punahou (Obama's alma mater-and no, she didn't go to high school the same time as he did). Dreaming of living in a big city and wearing sweaters, she left after 2 years at the University of Hawai'i to New York City and planned to attend Hofstra University. But, once there, experienced a severe case of culture shock and decided that was too much of a change and too far from home, so she settled in California, with family and graduated from Cal State University, Hayward (now, East Bay) before being recruited by Ernst & Young in San Francisco to be an auditor. Meanwhile, on the other side of the world, Pat was finding his way to life in Saudi Arabia, where his father was a teaching at the time. His mother is from Paris, France, and had been in the Peace Corp. His family was only in Saudi Arabia for a couple more months before returning to the States and landing in Campbell, CA. Pat and his two older brothers were active kids and he played tennis, soccer and ran cross country in high school. Pat later graduated from UC Davis before starting his banking career with Bank of America and later Wells Fargo Bank (he was a VP, of course). And then, tennis...

Their tennis life each started a little differently. Pat started as a 13-year-old and played through high school, while Darcy paddled canoe and played intramural sports in high school (and, of course, took Hula, Tahitian, Maorian and ukulele lessons). She started taking tennis lessons in Pleasant Hill in her early 30's and was connected to a blossoming group based out of Pleasant Hill, where she met Pam Maloney, Heidi & Brad Belton and started on USTA leagues. Like so many of our members, they found their way to Heather Farms to play tennis. Back in the day, there was more drop-in-play, and Pat was a frequent weekend player.

Then destiny happened, 8.0 Mixed captains Shari Gonzalez and Heidi Belton saw Pat playing as a recently rated 4.0 and approached him to play on their mixed team. They said, "we have the perfect partner for you, a 3.5 player). Pat said, "Don't you have a 4.0 I can play with?" They ignored him and in 2004, Darcy and Pat played their first mixed match together as a 7.5 team and went 5-0 that season. The next season, USTA came to their senses and Pat was bumped up to 4.5, but Darcy was still a 3.5. In the four years they played 8.0 mixed together, they went 24-3 until Darcy got bumped to 4.0 in 2008. Love actually does mean something in tennis because on January 1, 2006, they were married and they had their son, Luke, in 2010, who joined his half siblings, Michael & Julia. In 2020, they welcomed their COVID shelter pup, Max, to the family, who can sometimes be seen cheering their teams on at Heather.

Living in Walnut Creek, Luke is now a freshman at Las Lomas High School and they have both successfully ended their working career in July 2024. In the first year of retirement they traveled to 5 countries and 6 states, and they are just getting started. Many of their travels are with their good friends, who they met through tennis: Tammie & Justin Snyder and the Beltons (Heidi, Brad and Bridget). Together, they have been to Costa Rica & Maui (with Shari, Jesse and Drew Gonzalez, too), Portugal, France, Thailand, Japan, Australia, New Zealand, and of course annual trips to BNP Paribas. Next trip: Galapagos and Peru in summer of 2026! Other retirement plans? Getting Luke through high school (and hopefully college), continuing to cheer on their Bay Area teams: 49ers (they went to 2 super bowls that didn't end well), SF Giants and Warriors, more mah jongg with

Tammie, Tami Lightle, Heidi and others (Darcy, not Pat), more pickleball, and volunteer work down the line.

So, they'll continue to play with friends at the Farm and one day, we'll see who will win the "played with Darcy competition." Shari Gonzalez, who, at this writing, played with Darcy 81 times! While Pat has played with Darcy only 67 times. Pat's plan is that when he gets bumped down to 4.0 (yeah, right), he and Darcy will sign up for 10 teams across California and maybe Hawai'i and beat Shari's count.

While all the successes on court (Darcy was part of 4 National teams, one that took the title and one as a finalist, and Pat was part of 3 National teams) have been fun, especially since this sport can have so many lows, they both agree that the HF tennis community has been an integral part of their lives and are thankful that they found their way to "The Farm." ▲

18+ 4.0W - Day

Another Weekend at Sectionals!

The WC-A 4.0 Day 18+ Team, captained by Stacey Blackman and Megan Patterson, competed at Day Sectionals in Gold River—battling through peak temperatures of nearly 110 degrees (and even hotter on court!). Our team came prepared and stayed hydrated, ready for the challenge.

At the last minute, we were informed of a shortened match format (first to 4 games per set, no-ad scoring), which added unpredictability and definitely impacted match outcomes. While all teams faced the same conditions, we knew anything could happen under this scoring system.

Although we weren't able to bring home the trophy this time, we are incredibly proud of our players for their grit, sportsmanship, and commitment—making the drive to Sacramento and competing in matches that wrapped up in just 30–45 minutes under the new format.

Players at Sectionals (pictured): Stacey Blackman, Martha Matrisian, Cassie Kim, Ana Larner, Corazon Bellamy, Christine Hohenstein, Margaret Harrison, Laurie Radonovich, Anne Poirier, and Babe Franey.

Players unable to attend Sectionals: Megan Patterson, Kristen Foster, Esther Parti, Lara Flowers, Bridget Bradford, Melissa Smith, and Nicole Shay.

Thanks,

Stacey Blackman & Megan Patterson

55+ 7.0W & 8.0W Sectionals

Both the 55+ 7.0 and 8.0 Women's teams went to sectionals last month at Diamond Hills. Tammie Snyder with co-captains Heidi Belton and Tami Lightle not only worked together to make sure they had strong lines for all 6 matches but made the 3-day-event a full-team-affair.

Six players played on both the 7.0 & 8.0 rosters but you would have never known there were two teams. Both teams came out early to support one another and cheered the loudest and sat in the sweltering heat for every. single. point!

Our players never gave up: Janell, who got up after hitting the deck with debilitating cramps and fought through the pain and finished her match; Tracie, who literally came from the plane, jet lagged and all, to play (and win) her match; and Angela, who fought gallantly knowing that when she finished her match she had to go home and put down her 17-year-old dog :(

Everyone put it all out on the line this weekend. Even though we came up short on both teams, we built something better than going to sectionals, we built a stronger team than when we started. We shared the joys and sorrows together, felt their pain when they felt like they let the team down.

No one let anyone down. If you tried your best and came up short,

55+ 7.0W & 8.0W Sectionals

how is that letting anyone down? No one gave up, not for one second, not until the last ball bounced. Through the miserable heat and pain and cramps, through EVERYTHING we never said, we're done. We fought and fought hard for every single point.

Tennis is tennis. We have something bigger than tennis. We have a family that tosses their champagne into the bushes (that they smuggled into the club) to give their sister their cup with cramp-ending electrolytes, stuffed mustard packs into an open mouth, got the biggest umbrella to shade our players, found ice to cool each other down and stayed with each other making sure they were fully recovered. We made memories that I guarantee no other teams made. Having lunch together was a memory I'll never forget. It didn't matter what level you were, everyone found something to talk about, no one cared if you lost your match or won it. We ate together, laughed together and united into a bigger tennis family than before this weekend.

To me that's a win. There will ALWAYS be another tennis match. There will be another playoff match, another sectionals match and hopefully some day another nationals match. We played 17 different players for the 7.0's, and 18 different players played for the 8.0's.

The 7.0's finished their season 7-3. We took out the #3 team Moraga in playoffs, we beat the # 1 (undefeated) Round Hill team in the second round of playoffs, and won 2 out of 3 matches at sectionals. In the end we finished in 5th place overall in Northern California of 72 teams!

The 8.0's finished their season also with a 7-3 record. We swept Round Hill in playoffs. We went 2-1 at sectionals and In the end we finished in 6th place over all in Northern California of 54 teams!

I look forward to doing it again next year!

Go Creek!!!
Tammie

Mid-Summer Night Tennis

First and foremost I want to thank EVERYONE who participated this year. We had quite a tournament with lots of fun, great outfits, amazing tennis, food and drinks!

Thank you to everyone who helped put this tournament together. Sally Krapf, Garvin Tom, Cara Mia Barnacascel and Rebecca Kay.

Additional thanks to our backups who stepped in where needed: Wendy Schofield, Don Lewis, Will Gamarra, Sandra Harris and Garvin Tom. Thanks to Christine Hohenstein who was on call for back up.

Thanks to Garvin for taking a ton of photos.

The weather was HOT but that didn't put a damper on anyone's attitude. Lot's of great tennis, sportmanship and new friends made!

If you missed it this year, join us for next years Mid-Summer Night Tennis Tournament!

Division I - Team purple won the best outfit contest hands down! Their Grape Expectations Toga Theme was a clear winner!

Melissa Bach, Richard Morigin, Scott Bishop, Cara Mia Barnacascel

Division II - Bryon Bardy who waited until the last minute for his Amazon shirt to arrive (which never did) and had to make a last minute pit stop to Dick's Sporting Goods to secure a women's XL pink shirt for his Team pink. This extra effort lead to their best outfit win.

2025 Fall Mixed Doubles Tournament

After reviewing participation trends, the WCRC Board has decided to change the format of the Fall Mixed Doubles League from a traditional season format to a weekend tournament.

In past seasons, we've noticed that most teams were only able to complete 2 to 3 matches during the regular season, and coordinating the end-of-season tournament in the spring has become increasingly difficult due to scheduling conflicts with USTA leagues, unpredictable weather, and major events like the Indian Wells tournament. Additionally, many playoff matches were being played weeks after the scheduled tournament dates, making it difficult to maintain the league's cohesion and timeliness.

With the new format, everything will be streamlined into a single, action-packed weekend, making it easier for players to commit and allowing us to set firm dates for play. We're excited to see how this approach works and think it will make the league more fun, social, and manageable for everyone.

Registration for the Fall Mixed Tournament is now live on the WCRC website.

Here is a recap of the key details:

Registration opens on August 18th

Registration closes on Sept. 26th

Tournament runs from Oct. 3rd - Oct. 5th

Players can only sign up to play in one division

Teams with combined USTA ratings ending in .5 can only play up at the next higher level (e.g., 3.0/3.5 pair plays in 7.0)

Both players need an active WCRC membership to register

Find a partner and enjoy a weekend of great tennis.

For questions, feel free to email Dave Wong at DW_WCRC@protonmail.com.
